	I can explain why being democratic is important and can help me and others feel valued.	what to do about it if I'm not sure. I can explain why it is good to accept myself and others for who we are.		I can identify feelings of anxiety and fear associated with peer pressure.	missing a special person or animal.	I can explain some of the choices I might make in the future and some of the choices that I have no control over.  I can offer some suggestions about how I might manage my feelings when changes happen.
Y5/6 Cycle 1	I can compare my life with other people in my country and explain why we have rules, rights and responsibilities to try and make the school and the wider community a fair place.  I can explain how the actions of one person can affect another and can give examples of this from school and a wider community context.	I can explain the differences between direct and indirect types of bullying and can offer a range of strategies to help myself and others if we become involved (directly or indirectly) in a bullying situation.  I can explain why racism and other forms of discrimination are unkind. I can express how I feel about discriminatory behaviour.	I can compare my hopes and dreams with those of young people from different cultures.  I can reflect on the hopes and dreams of young people from another culture and explain how this makes me feel.	I can explain different roles that food and substances can play in people's lives.  I can also explain how people can develop eating problems (disorders) relating to body image pressures and how smoking and alcohol misuse is unhealthy.  I can summarise different ways that I respect and value my body.	I can compare different types of friendships and the feelings associated with them. I can also explain how to stay safe when using technology to communicate with my friends, including how to stand up for myself, negotiate and to resist peer pressure.  I can apply strategies to manage my feelings and the pressures I may face to use technology in ways that may be risky or cause harm to myself or others.	I can explain how boys and girls change during puberty and why looking after myself physically and emotionally is important.  I can also summarise the process of conception. I can express how I feel about the changes that will happen to me during puberty, and that I accept these changes might happen at different times to my friends.
Y5/6 Cycle 2	I can explain how my choices can have an impact on people in my immediate community and globally.  I can empathise with others in my community and globally and explain how this can influence the choices I make.	I can explain ways in which difference can be a source of conflict or a cause for celebration.  I can show empathy with people in situations where their difference is a source of conflict or a cause for celebration.	I can explain different ways to work with others to help make the world a better place.  I can explain what motivates me to make the world a better place.	I can explain when substances including alcohol are being used anti-socially or being misused and the impact this can have on an individual and others.  I can identify and apply skills to keep myself emotionally healthy and to manage stress and pressure.	I can identify when people may be experiencing feelings associated with loss and also recognise when people are trying to gain power or control.  I can explain the feelings I might experience if I lose somebody special and when I need to stand up for myself and my friends in real or online situations.  I can offer strategies to help me manage these feelings and situations.	I can describe how a baby develops from conception through the nine months of pregnancy, and how it is born.  I recognise how I feel when I reflect on becoming a teenager and how I feel about the development and birth of a baby.
